

State Bar of New Mexico Communications Policy for the New Mexico Supreme Court and Regulated Entities

Date of last review: March 17, 2026

Legal Entities Regulated by New Mexico Supreme Court Order or Rule: Supreme Court of New Mexico, New Mexico Court of Appeals, Lower Courts, the Administrative Office of the Courts, New Mexico Access to Justice Commission and any other entity that is governed by the rules of the Supreme Court.

The State Bar of New Mexico is committed to distribution of official communications from the Supreme Court of New Mexico and other regulated entities to our membership.

- Announcements, notices or events on the Court Notices webpage: <https://www.sbnm.org/News-Publications/Bar-Bulletin/Online-Notices/Court-Notices>
- Announcements, notices or events in the Bar Bulletin.
- The State Bar of New Mexico's Communications Department will issue press releases on behalf of organizations governed by the New Mexico Supreme Court.
- Social media posts on the State Bar of New Mexico social media platforms for an unlimited number of events, limited to one post per event.
- Email communications to the membership as necessary.
- The State Bar of New Mexico will issue one (1) email per pro bono or volunteer event on behalf of legal service providers to active members within the judicial district of the event, as well as surrounding districts. All requests for emails must have finalized text sent to the State Bar of New Mexico. All emails will be proofed internally by the State Bar of New Mexico Communications staff. Email proofs will not be provided before being sent out to the membership unless one is requested.