

INFORMAL LIST OF ATTORNEYS ACCEPTING GAL CASES

Please send additional providers to celeste.valencia@sbnm.org and the list will be updated.

I'll have some bandwidth for new appointments in August/September. I take cases in the 3rd, 6th, 7th, and 12th. I will take cases in the 5th as long as the parties agree to pay for travel.

I appreciate GAL cases from anywhere in the state if the parties are prepared for travel costs.

My viewpoint as a GAL is that I am appointed to assist the court in determining the child's best interests as quickly and affordably as possible, to help parties and counsel by pressing forward toward real solutions, and to support the child by helping the court make well-informed decisions affecting the child's daily life.

As a member of the Family Law Institute (co-sponsored by the National LGBTQ+ Bar Association and the National Center for Lesbian Rights/NCLR), I am also happy to work with counsel and families where there are LGBTQ+ issues involved.

Good referrals for me:

- High conflict
- Children dealing with attachments and trust
- Parents willing to consider creative solutions
- LGBTQ+ issues
- Statewide

If you're considering a GAL appointment, please feel free to reach out and talk with me. Happy to share more about my approach anytime over a phone call or a quick meeting.
