

Arturo L. Jaramillo Summer Clerkship Program For 1Ls

Arturo L. Jaramillo, the first Hispanic president of the State Bar of New Mexico, developed the Summer Law Clerk Program in 1993 to provide inclusive equal employment opportunities for first year law students from diverse backgrounds historically underrepresented in the legal profession by offering students the opportunity to clerk in legal settings that provide a foundation for their careers in the law.

State Bar of New Mexico Diversity Statement:

The State Bar of New Mexico is committed to fulfilling Rule 24-101(A) NMRA, and ensuring that the legal profession and the legal system reflect the community we serve in all its social, economic, and geographical diversity. We are focused on expansion of pathways to and within the legal profession and the judiciary. We acknowledge the strengths historically excluded groups bring to the legal profession and will cultivate those strengths for the advancement of justice for all.
