

JOCELYN M. TORRES: Jocelyn is from New Mexico and has been a licensed attorney, litigator and mediator for forty years. She is also a proficient writer and has conducted extensive legal and mediation training for the ABA, State Bar, UNM and several other organizations. Jocelyn obtained her BA cum laude in Psychology, MA with distinction in Public Administration/Energy Management and Juris Doctorate Degrees from UNM. Jocelyn cofounded the NM Children's Court Mediation Team in March, 2000. She authored/sponsored the NM Safe Haven Act of 2001 and coauthored/cosponsored the NM Mediation Procedures Act of 2007. She retired as a Children's Court Attorney in June, 2017. Jocelyn has chaired the State Bar's ADR Committee, is chair-elect of the Senior Lawyers Division, is a Public Law Section board member and is on the State Bar Well-Being Committee. Since retirement, she has worked with the state Judiciary, Legislature, the City of Albuquerque and the UNM Law School.

WILLIAM D. SLEASE ("Bill") is the Professional Development Program Director for the State Bar of New Mexico. In addition to his duties at the State Bar, he serves as an adjunct professor at the University of New Mexico School of Law where he teaches Ethics, 1L Lab, and serves as a practice skills evaluator for the evidence-trial practice skills course. He formerly served as the Chief Disciplinary Counsel for the New Mexico Supreme Court Disciplinary Board. Prior to his work in the public service sector, he was in private practice with an emphasis in civil rights, employment and tort litigation.

BRIGGS CHENEY practices with Dixon Scholl Carrillo, PA in Albuquerque. His practice for 50 years has focused on the representation of lawyers in the civil and disciplinary arenas. He has been active in local, state, and national bars in all matters relating to lawyers and the legal profession and has been recognized for his efforts.

CYNTHIA TESSMAN, JD, CWLS, is the Master Attorney for Bernalillo County for the Children, Youth, and Families Department. Ms. Tessman has been with the Department for over 16 years and worked as a guardian ad litem and youth attorney prior to that. Prior to working in Children's Court, she worked in the area of corporate and complex bankruptcy. She graduated from UNM School of Law in 1999. She has worked on the Supreme Court Joint Court Rules Committee providing input from the Children's Court perspective. She was involved in the creation of the Second Judicial District Family Unification Court (Drug Court) and the first Indian Child Welfare Act Court in New Mexico. Ms. Tessman is certified as a Child Welfare Law Specialist by the American Bar Association and the National Association of Counsel for Children.

NATHAN J. ECKBERG is a licensed attorney and program evaluator for the New Mexico Legislative Finance Committee where he has worked for almost 9 years. As a program evaluator he has contributed to and was lead evaluator on several evaluations primarily on public school issues such as dropout prevention, federal funding, virtual schools, and instructional time, and other topics including the aging network, Department of Health facilities, the behavioral health system, higher education, and procurement. Born and raised in Santa Fe, Nathan is a New Mexico native and a graduate of Santa Fe Public Schools and the University of New Mexico before briefly living in Minnesota to attend law school. He has been on the State Bar of New Mexico's Public Law Section board of directors since 2019 and is currently Chair. Nathan travels to Palomas Mexico the second weekend of every month to volunteer at an orphanage, a project he has been involved with for roughly 20 years.

GERALDINE GARDUNO is the proud mother of two littles, Enzo (3) and Maya (1). She has worked in state government since 2013, as counsel for different state agencies including the Department of Transportation, Public Regulation Commission and currently the Public Employees Retirement Association. She enjoys the challenges of public practice, especially in the developing areas of law that routinely impact agencies like IPRA, OMA, and employment law. Geraldine has been an active member of the Public Law Board since 2017.