1	This event would have been more appropriately billed as a club meeting. There was zero diversity of legal thought or opinion presented at this event. The presentations were a feedback loop of recycled opinion. Furthermore, the amount of legal presentation, analysis, and discussion could not have exceeded 25% of the program. The bulk of the material presented focused on the individual speaker's policy preferences, whilst attacking policy's that diverged from that presented. The Animal Law Section, in what can only have been a deliberate effort, did not invite divergent opinions to present and defend valid, yet diverging legal and policy positions. A CLE undermines its own credibility when it fails to incorporate diverging legal and policy opinion. The New Mexico Bar Association would be wise to provide greater oversight of the Animal Law Section before it sponsors CLE and other events that carry the Association's credentials.	9/15/2016 9:00 AM
2	This CLE offered some very interesting information. My only concern is that the morning portion of the program was completely one-sided. The presenters made smug comments about proposals to move federal lands to state control as being unconstitutional land grabs. Yet one of the panel members had, as land commissioner, proposed taking federal lands selected for disposal into the state as public lands. That does make you wonder if all such land transfers are unconstitutional. It might have been interesting and more educational to also present the opposing legal analysis.	9/13/2016 11:48 AM
3	Very impressed with the work of the Animal Law !	9/12/2016 4:32 PM
4	This one was very well organized.	9/12/2016 3:14 PM
5	Great program!	9/12/2016 12:42 PM
6	The written materials used in this cle course were very poor! They were printed very faintly on the handout, and in any event were almost too small to be read even if printed better. They were nothing more than very small copies of the screens used by the various presenters	9/12/2016 9:00 AM
7	This would have been a stronger CLE if there had been speakers from the Federal government (especially BLM) and an organization promoting the transfer of public lands. I think the factors driving the transfer movement are more than just corporate interests as posited by the speakers, and similarly funding is not the only factor driving Federal behavior.	9/12/2016 8:40 AM
