What's included in programs offered by the Center for Legal Education?

Center for Legal Education programs include distinguished faculty with expertise in the subject matters presented, relevant program materials, CLE credits filed with New Mexico MCLE within 30 days of the program, morning refreshments and lunch the day of the program.

Why should you attend a CLE program offered by the Center for Legal Education?

- To gain a better understanding of current legal issues in a broad range of practice areas
- Center for Legal Education programs include an overview of substantive law, technical skills and ethics and professionalism training
- Networking opportunities and access on-site legal resources such as New Mexico One-Source

This CLE program is designed for:

- Solo and small firm attorneys
- Paralegals and legal assistants
- New attorneys or those adding this type of law to their current legal practice
