5	I enjoyed the webcast very much. The only difficulty I had was with the "checkpoints." Due to the random appearance of the checkpoints, I was unable to take full advantage of the course materials during the time of the presentations. Perhaps an audio component can be included, like a bell, to alert the viewer to the fact than a checkpoint has been reached. Other CLE courses I have taken have both a visual or audio component. In any event, I hope a resolution is reached because this puts webcast viewers at a disadvantage since course materials cannot be simultaneously reviewed. Since webcast viewers pay a premium to attend a webcast, I hope the situation can be resolved. Thank you.	12/4/2015 2:59 PM
