

ALASKA NATIVE TRIBAL HEALTH CONSORTIUM
DEPUTY GENERAL COUNSEL
203,000.00-279,000.00

About the position: ANTHC, Alaska's largest Tribal health consortium is seeking an experienced Deputy General Counsel. This newly added position will support the organization's legal operations by providing high-quality legal advice and services to include drafting, reviewing, and negotiating contracts, ensuring regulatory compliance, mitigating legal risks, addressing a wide range of legal matters that impact the organization and supervising the in-house legal team.

What we're looking for: Juris doctorate; 11 years of experience (including substantial experience in litigation, transactions, healthcare law, construction law, employment law, and/or Federal Indian law and self-governance compacting) with 2 supervisory and admitted to practice before the Alaska State, Federal District, and other appropriate courts.

About ANTHC: ANTHC is the largest, most comprehensive Tribal health organization in the US, and Alaska's second-largest health employer with more than 3,100 employees offering an array of health services to people around the nation's largest state.

Our amazing benefits include: Medical insurance is provided through FEHB (22 different federal plans to choose from; ANTHC covers 80% of the premiums); 4 weeks PTO to start plus 11 paid holidays; Onsite childcare; onsite free gym access with additional access to the APU gym, rock-climbing, salt-water pool. ANTHC offers short/long-term disability, basic life insurance and AD&D at no cost. Retirement options include: 401a with 3% company contribution and up to 5% match and 403b discretionary. Tuition reductions for employees and their eligible dependents at APU.

Send in your resume to: marobichaud@anthc.org or visit our website at www.anthc.org/work-with-us/ to apply!