Funding Civil Legal Services in New Mexico

What is an IOLTA account?
A pooled, interest-bearing demand deposit account used by lawyers to hold client funds.

Where does IOLTA interest go?
The interest generated on IOLTA accounts is remitted to the State Bar of New Mexico and distributed through an annual grant process conducted by the State Bar’s Access to Justice Fund Grant Commission.

What do the grants fund?
The Commission awards grants to Civil Legal Service Providers throughout New Mexico. These organizations provide civil legal assistance to low-income New Mexicans. In the 2019-2020 grant cycle, the Commission awarded $675,000 to civil legal service programs. Of that amount, $270,000 came from IOLTA funding.

How can I help?
By choosing a bank with the highest interest rates for IOLTA, you are increasing the funding for civil legal services in New Mexico. To find out which banks offer the highest rates check our website at https://www.sbnm.org/Licensing-Regulatory/IOLTA or email iolta@sbnm.org.

Leadership Circle banking institutions go above and beyond the eligibility requirements of the Rule to support the State Bar in its mission to ensure access to critically needed legal aid for low-income New Mexicans. These financial institutions pay an interest rate equal to the higher of 55% of the Federal Funds Target rate OR 0.35%.
